Peterson, Garcia eye unification bout with wins

Reuters | Jul 31

WASHINGTON: Unbeaten Danny Garcia and fellow American Lamont Peterson talked up a unification showdown for an undisputed light-welterweight crown Wednesday, but both must win next month to create such an opportunity.

Both are favored in August 9 bouts in New York, with Garcia (28-0 with 16 knockouts) in a 10-round non-title bout against fellow American Rod Salka (19-3 with three knockouts) and Peterson (32-2 with one drawn and 16 knockouts) defending the International Boxing Federation crown against Puerto Rico's Edgar Santana (29-4 with 20 knockouts).

Peterson wanted to fight Garcia after a January title defense against Canadian Dierry Jean, but could not make a deal.

"I wanted to fight Danny Garcia next. That's what the fans wanted to see," Peterson said. "I pushed hard for the fight but it just didn't happen."
